Lunch with MWENGE MUYOMBI

Noon, Thursday, June 12

Hear what God is doing in Tanzania

We'll be hosting Mwenge Muyombi at noon, Thursday, June 12, to learn about what God is doing in the Global Methodist Church in Tanzania, one of our partner conferences. Mwenge has been a missionary in Tanzania with Joy in the Harvest for 30 years. He is married to Mrs. Janeth Isakesen and they have three children; Jennifer, Rose Mary, and Emmanuel.

Mwenge has focused on proclaiming the gospel, planting churches, providing training to established churches and assisting with the care of the poor and widowed. Mwenge has been a lay leader for the past 25 years and is now a member of the Tanzania Conference as Lay Leader of the Kigoma District of the Global Methodist Church. He also is a member of the Kingdom Advancement Commission that is responsible for evangelism, church planting, international ministry partnership development and disaster response for the Global Methodist Church. Mr. Muyombi will be a lay delegate to the 2026 General Conference in Johannesburg, South Africa.

Please call the church office if you are coming so we know how much food to prepare.

The Pastor's Page

Though I'd attended my grandparents' 50th anniversary party as a child, I was too young to be aware of what was happening. The first big anniversary I remember celebrating was the US Bicentennial in 1976. I remember celebrating the 200th anniversary of the Methodist church in America in 1984. The 500th anniversary of the start of the Reformation in 2017 seemed muted to me, but I still put out my own 95 Theses.

Rev. Richard

This year's celebration of the 1700th anniversary of the Council of Nicaea is upon us. In 325 leaders from across the Christian world met to discuss just what it was we believed about Jesus' identity vis-à-vis God the Father. Rejecting what came to be known as the Arian position – that Jesus is some sort of secondary god ("there was a time when he was not") – the church confessed:

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

The identity of Jesus has been important to Christians since the very beginning. Jesus himself asked his disciples, "Who do you say I am?" eliciting Peter's reply, "You are the Christ, the son of the living God." Others had other thoughts, some accusatory as in the Sanhedrin, "false prophet," "Blasphemer;" some ironic, like Pilate's "Jesus of Nazareth, King of the Jews."

Who Jesus is, is foundational to our take on what Jesus does. His taking our sin upon himself, dying for us on the cross, rising from the dead, and ascension to rule at the right hand of the Father, is effective for us because he is the eternally begotten Son of the God become human.

Since the Council of Nicaea met in 325, the church has had to deal with other important issues (including the Council of Constantinople in 381 that tweaked the creed of 325), but we never get past the basic confession of Jesus' identity. This same Jesus invites us to become willing participants in what he's doing, fully allegiant citizens of his kingdom.

Because of the anniversary, we'll be using the Nicene Creed more often. We'll also start using a version of the Apostles' Creed that uses contemporary English. This is partly because we are speakers of contemporary English and partly to bring us in line with official GMC doctrinal practice.

An Opportunity for a Daily Devotional Experience

Wake-Up Call provides a daily encouragement to shake off the slumber of our busy lives and turn our eyes toward Jesus. Each morning our community gathers around a Scripture, a reflection, a prayer, and a few short questions, inviting us to reorient our lives around the love of Jesus who transforms our hearts, homes, churches, and cities.

Sign up online at <https://seedbed.com/wakeupcall/>

What makes up each morning's Wake-Up Call?

Every day, whether by email, podcast, or blog post, our aim is to help us hear the ancient hymn of the church found in Ephesians:

Specifically, that encouragement always includes:

HEAR	CONSIDER	PRAY	JOURNAL
We start each day by waking up to the good news of Jesus as found in the Word of God.	Read a brief awakening perspective from J. D. Walt and friends based on the text.	Join us together in a prayer based in the scripture and reflection that aligns our hearts for the day.	Sometimes challenging, always compelling, we provide 2-3 questions for you to meditate on.

June 2025 We uphold our vows

"As members of this congregation, we will faithfully participate in its ministries by our prayers, presence, gifts, service and witness."

Financial Report for May 2025

We're still doing well, currently with some cushion in both General Budget and Building Debt - we're over half way to what we need for our June debt payment.

We will be spending on AC repairs in upcoming weeks. Currently we know one unit will need replacing (estimate at around $23,000) and another needs parts (which are on backorder). Current world trade situation - on top of previous supply interruptions - slows things down and can make them more expensive.

Thank you for your generosity!

General Budget Giving to Date
